

National Compassion Fund and Mueller Water Products Announce the Dunham Fund Matching Grant for Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund

March 26, 2019

The Dunham Fund will match $1 for $1 up to $100,000 in new donations to support victims, families and employees affected by tragedy at the Henry Pratt Company

AURORA, Ill., March 26, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Dunham Fund, the largest private foundation in the Aurora, Illinois area – announced it will be honoring victims, their families and employees affected by the February 15 shooting at the Henry Pratt Company in Aurora, Illinois, by matching $1 for $1 up to $100,000 of new donations made to the Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund, administered by the National Compassion Fund. The new donation period for matching gifts began at 5 p.m. CST on March 12, 2019 and will end at either the close of the campaign or upon reaching $100,000.

The Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund was established with support from GoFundMe and Mueller Water Products, the owner of Henry Pratt, to provide direct financial support to the families of Russell Beyer, Vicente Juarez, Clayton Parks, Josh Pinkard and Trevor Wehner, and employees physically injured or traumatized by their presence during the shooting at the Henry Pratt Company on February 15 in Aurora, Illinois.

"We've seen firsthand how much this tragedy has affected the entire Aurora community. Our hearts continue to be with all Henry Pratt employees, their families and the first responders," said Stewart Beach, Dunham Fund Chairperson. "We're honored to be able to provide assistance to the Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund during such a challenging time."

One hundred percent of the funds donated to this Fund will go directly to survivors. Contributions made to this Fund are tax deductible. Those interested in contributing by credit card can donate online to the Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund through GoFundMe at <https://www.gofundme.com/auroraprattsurvivorsfund>. Checks can be made payable to the National Compassion Fund – Aurora/Pratt Survivors' Fund and sent to:
